TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES FROM 7 APRIL TO 4 MAY 2020

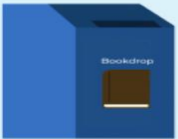

Temporary closure of libraries and archives

With the current COVID-19 situation and in line with the Government's decision to step up precautionary measures on 3 April 2020, the National Library Building, our 25 public libraries, the National Archives of Singapore Building and the Former Ford Factory will be closed temporarily from 7 April to 4 May 2020.

No library fines will be imposed

During this temporary closure, overdue fines will not be imposed. Loan expiry will be automatically extended to three weeks after libraries reopen.

On-site services will not be available

All bookdrops and reservation lockers will be temporarily not available during this period.

24/7 digital services readily available

Patrons are encouraged to use our wide range of digital services, available online and on the NLB mobile app.
